GERMAN LANGUAGE
ISSUE DEPRECATED

Washingtonians Disapprove Action of Baltimore People to Eliminate Study Course.

"I consider the action being taken in Baltimore to have the study of German banished from the public schools there to be utterly foolish and absurd."

This was the statement today of Frederick C. Byran, former president of the local chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution and now a member of the board of management.

"While I have not considered the matter," declared Admiral T. F. Jewell, U. S. N., retired, president of the patriotic organization, "on the face of it, I would deem it unwise to prohibit the study of German in our schools."

Dr. John Van Schaick, jr., president of the Board of Education and the study of German should not be barred from the public schools here. The Maryland Society, Sons of the American Revolution, yesterday presented to the Baltimore board of education a resolution asking that German be eliminated from the curriculum of the public schools here.

The board decided that the question was too big to be considered except with the gravest attention.

It was decided to give proponents of German language an opportunity to express their views.

Dr. Van Schaick said that to bar the study of German from the schools would be foolhardy. There is no quarrel with the German people but with the German government, he said.

"German," said Dr. Van Schaick, "will always be one of the important languages. It will continue to be part of the intellectual make-up of the man and woman of today and tomorrow."

"War itself is honest and I believe in fighting to the utmost when we should, but we should fight in a big way, and discriminating against the language of a people because we have a quarrel with their government is small and mean."

METHODISTS PLEDGE
SUPPORT TO WILSON

Resolution Offered by Capital Clergymen Adopted—Fight on Liquor Outlined.

BALTIMORE, March 29.—A resolution offered by the Revs. D. H. Martin, James S. Montgomery, and John R. Edwards, all of Washington, at the Baltimore annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was adopted and it pledged to the President "loyal and unfailing support in every act that means the protection of the lives and interests of our citizens, the defense of the nation's honor, the preservation of her self-respect, the continuance of the good will of the world and the welfare of humanity at large."

Bishop Frank M. Bristol, of Chattanooga, Tenn., is president of the conference, which is holding its session in Walbrook Methodist Church. With him at the opening session were Bishop Earl Cranston and Bishop John W. Hamilton. The Rev. Frank G. Porter was re-elected secretary, with the Revs. H. W. Burgham, W. H. Hoffman, W. J. Meeks, and J. S. German as assistants.

Rev. Dr. Walter H. Burnett, of Washington, addressed the Women's Foreign Missionary Society at its anniversary meeting.

The conference adopted the report and recommendations upon the Methodist church's official organ, which were submitted by the Rev. Drs. John F. Goucher and J. Fred Heise, and John L. Alcock. The recommendation was that $1,500 be raised by the conference to support the paper, and it was supported overwhelmingly.

George W. Crabbe, the new superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, in his maiden speech here was vigorous in expressing his purpose to fight straight down the line in the next legislature for statutory prohibition without a referendum for the entire State, and he seemed to make a favorable impression upon the large number of Methodists, clerical and lay, who crowded the church.
